

Greetings Faculty!

As you prepare for FALL 2024, we want to remind you about the excellent array of resources and services available via the Library. Please see the links below to explore more than 310,000 E-Books, 60,000 E-Journals, and 91 Research Databases. The library also maintains 80 Research Guides covering resources and search strategies to help students navigate the research process from any place at any time of day. All library content is completely virtual.

Library News

The Business and Law libraries are merging into one University Library with resources and services accessible by all students, faculty, and staff. Keep your eye on the library home page in the year ahead where you will begin to see a greater array of research options geared to student needs.

Did you know? The Library provides access to the fully digital versions of The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal.
→ Sign up for free via the links.
