

Instructional Design Corner

Discussion Prompts

Discussion is a key component of crafting engaging, high quality courses, especially in courses that are delivered mostly or fully online. Great class discussions create community, strengthen learning, encourage analysis, broaden horizons, and keep both students and faculty interested and engaged in learning more! In this 5 minute video, seasoned Instructional Designer Louise Floro covers how to create discussion questions and prompts that both you and your students want to read and answer.

<https://app.vidgrid.com/view/TUEg0rvtWtu0/?sr=kMytTT>